

OVERVIEW

The Evangelist is the field-level executor responsible for ensuring abundant Gospel sowing by directly engaging the lost in the target area through diverse methods of outreach. This role requires actively planning and conducting various evangelistic activities, ranging from intentional one-on-one sharing to organizing and participating in mini and large Gospel crusades. The Evangelist is also accountable for diligently recording conversion decisions and follow-up data to facilitate a smooth handoff to the next stage of the multiplication pipeline. It is full time and support raising or self-funding is required. The role is based out of Bangkok, Thailand.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Gospel Sowing Activities: Personally plan, organize, and execute a consistent schedule of one-on-one and group evangelism activities, effectively utilizing both oral and media-based methods to clearly present the Gospel of Christ to the lost.
- Mass Evangelism Participation: Actively plan and participate in larger outreach efforts, including organizing and presenting at mini and large Gospel crusades, often working with and platforming other evangelists.
- Conversion Record Keeping: Maintain meticulous, accurate, and up-to-date records of all spiritual contacts and decisions, categorizing them using the established "green, yellow, red" system.
- Data Handoff and Reporting: Ensure timely and systematic transfer of all spiritual decision data and contact information to the Evangelism Coordinator to facilitate immediate follow-up by the Church Planters.
- Outreach Resource Management: Secure, manage, and deploy necessary evangelism materials and media for daily outreach activities, ensuring appropriate and contextual use within the target community.
- Spiritual and Skill Development: Continuously seek to improve personal evangelistic effectiveness by participating in team training, seeking coaching, and maintaining a healthy personal spiritual life.
