

JOB DESCRIPTION for Burmese MTS Supervisor

OVERVIEW

The Burmese MTS Supervisor is responsible for the direct day-to-day management and high-quality delivery of the Missionary Training School curriculum specifically for the Burmese-speaking track. This involves recruiting, scheduling, and supporting all Burmese-language instructors and ensuring the curriculum is culturally relevant and effectively preparing students for long-term missionary service. They serve as the primary on-site mentor and shepherd for the Burmese-speaking students, focusing on their spiritual growth and successful preparation for the mission field. It is full time and support raising or self-funding is required. The role is based out of Bangkok, Thailand.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Burmese Track Program Management: Oversee the day-to-day operations and schedule for the Burmese MTS track, ensuring all classes and special events are executed efficiently and meet established quality standards.
- Instructor Recruitment and Support: Recruit, schedule, and provide ongoing support and resources for all Burmese-speaking trainers, teachers, and guest lecturers, ensuring consistency in curriculum delivery and cross-cultural application.
- Student Mentorship and Discipleship: Serve as the primary mentor, spiritual shepherd, and pastoral care resource for all students enrolled in the Burmese track, guiding their vocational clarity and personal growth toward long-term service.
- Curriculum Implementation: Directly manage the implementation of the contextualized Burmese MTS curriculum, providing real-time feedback to the MTS Coordinator on the effectiveness and relevance of the modules.
- Logistical Support and Resource Allocation: Coordinate classroom needs, material distribution, technology setup, and any necessary logistical support for the Burmese track, working within the budget approved by the MTS Coordinator.
- Recruitment and Onboarding Support: Assist the MTS Coordinator with the recruitment, application processing, and initial onboarding of new Burmese-speaking students, ensuring a smooth transition into the Bangkok school environment.
